

Gusford Primary Reading Newsletter

December 2022

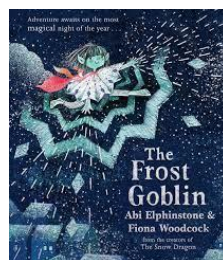

'If you read you succeed'

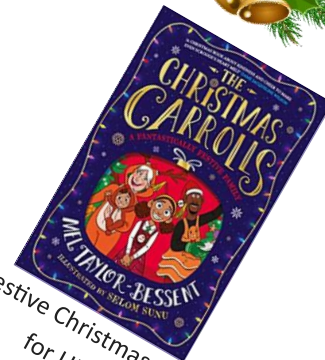

A perfect searching book!

Perfect for Christmas Eve bedtime.

A great story for LKS2!

A festive Christmas story for UKS2

What are we reading in school this month?

EYFS- Farmer Duck, Come on, Daisy, Each Peach Pear Plum, The Tiger Who Came to Tea, Shark in the Park.

Year 1- Percy the Park Keeper, Kipper.

Year 2- Fantastic Mr Fox.

Year 3- The Sheep Pig.

Year 4- Varjak Paw.

Year 5- War Horse.

Year 6- The Island at the End of Everything.

What are our grown-ups reading this month?

Mr Webber is reading Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban.

Mrs Garner is reading The Man Who Died Twice.

Miss Gooch is reading The Girl on the Train.

Miss Richardson is reading Waypoints.

Mr McCoy is reading A Christmas Carol.

Mrs Heard is reading The Ice Cream Girl.

Mrs Hopkins is reading The Hobbit.

All our grown-ups at school are hoping to find some really good books from their families under the Christmas Tree this year!

Merry Christmas everyone! Have a lovely break and remember to keep reading and ask Father Christmas for books this year!

Competition Time- name the book titles for these 5 quotes and be in with a chance to win a book! Email Miss Richardson your answers miss.richardson@gusfordprimary.net

- One day Mog woke up and nothing was right in her house.
- Everyone who down in Who-ville liked Christmas a lot.
- "Christmas won't be Christmas without any presents", grumbled Jo.
- Though I've grown old, the bell still rings for me, as it does for all who truly believe.
- Inside the castle, there was a buzz of Christmas in the air.

Five correct winners will be chosen on 15th December.

