Dear Parents and Carers,

I am writing to express my concern regarding the ongoing conflict in the Middle East and its potential impact on our community.

If you or your families are affected by the current situation, please do let either your child's class teacher or myself know – even if you don't think the children are aware, they pick up on emotions and overheard conversations. We are here to provide support to the children, but we can only do so effectively if we are made aware of your circumstances.

We recognise that discussing such matters can be difficult, and we want to create an open and supportive environment for all families. If you would like to pop in for a chat, this can be arranged too.

Thank you for your co-operation with this.

Yours sincerely,

Jenna Ramsden
Headteacher
