How have people like Rosa Parks helped to make the world a better place?

Sticky Knowledge facts:

- Famous people are people who are widely known and their actions or opinions

- Rosa Parks fought for the rights of black people in the USA. She became very well-known

- Nelson Mandela fought for the rights of black people in South Africa. He became very famous.

- Rosa Parks and Nelson Mandela have made a difference in a positive way, leaving the world in a better place.

- Emily Pankhurst was born in Manchester and spent her life fighting for women's rights and equality.

- People continue to raise awareness of discrimination through their actions or opinions.

Key Vocabulary:

discrimination	Unfair treatment of people because of their colour, age religion, disability or sex.
disability	A physical or mental condition that limits a person's movements, senses, or activities.
protest	To take action to show disapproval or objection to something.
racism	Treating someone unfairly because of the belief that their race, religion or beliefs are not as good as yours.
courageous	If you are a courageous person, you face danger or stand up against what you believe.