

General Data Protection Regulations

We want you to know that we take privacy very seriously. We always manage your details responsibly, and take great care to keep them safe and secure.

We sometimes transfer your information to other authorities, so that we can operate effectively as a school and be able to positively implement our duty of care for the school community. Under data regulations we are lawfully able to do this to carry out tasks in the public interest and as part of our legal obligation.

You have rights under data protection regulations, and we would like you to know what they are:

- a right of access to a copy of the information comprised in your personal data, however we may consider applying an exemption to some information where our duties maybe potentially compromised;
- a right to object to processing that is likely to cause or is causing damage or distress;
- a right to prevent processing for direct marketing;
- a right to object to decisions being taken by automated means, unless we have an overriding legitimate reason to continue;
- a right in certain circumstances to have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed.
- a right to claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Act.

We regularly take photographs of the children attending our school to capture and share learning and experiences.

If you would like to make any requests, think your data has been misused or it is not secure, you should contact Di Wright di.wright@hanslope.milton-keynes.sch.uk or admin@hanslope.milton-keynes.sch.uk
