

Aims

The national curriculum for History aims to ensure that all pupils know and understand:

KS1:

- changes within living memory where appropriate, these should be used to reveal aspects of change in national life
- events beyond living memory that are significant nationally or globally
- the lives of significant individuals in the past who have contributed to national and international achievements
- significant historical events, people and places in their own locality

KS2:

- changes in Britain from the Stone Age to the Iron Age
- the Roman Empire and its impact on Britain
- the achievements of the earliest civilizations an overview of where and when the first civilizations appeared and a depth study of one of the following: Ancient Sumer, The Indus
- Valley, Ancient Egypt, The Shang Dynasty of Ancient China
- Ancient Greece a study of Greek life and achievements and their influence on the western world
- a non-European society that provides contrasts with British history one study chosen from: early Islamic civilization, including a study Mayan civilization c. AD 900;
- a study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066
- a local history study
- the Viking and Anglo-Saxon struggle for the Kingdom of England to the time of Edward the Confessor
- Britain's settlement by Anglo-Saxons and Scots

At Hanslope Primary School we use KAPOW scheme as our basis ensuring we cover all skills from the National Curriculum and using Quality First Teaching to ensure all access the skills and knowledge.

Year 1 and 2 will combine in their history lessons. The mixed-age units follow a Cycle A and Cycle B format to ensure progression of skills for children across the age range and full coverage.

Disciplinary Knowledge and Historical Enquiry

Disciplinary Knowledge is knowledge about how historians investigate the past, and how they construct historical claims, arguments and accounts. It is concerned with developing historical rationale and critical thinking within enquiry, and can be categorised into disciplinary concepts that are systematically developed in our history curriculum.

Sub-strand		History - Disciplinary Concepts
		Year 1	Year 2	Lower Key Stage 2 (Year 3 and Year 4)	Upper Key Stage 2 (Year 5 and Year 6)
Change and continuity	Knowledge	Know that people change as they grow older Know that throughout someone's lifetime, some things will change and some things will stay the same Know that everyday objects have changed over time	Know that daily life has changed over time but that there are some similarities to life today	Know that change can be brought about by advancements in transport and travel Know that change can be brought about by advancements in materials Know that change can be brought about by advancements in trade	Know a variety of factors that can contribute to change
	Skills	Begin to look for similarities and differences over time in their own lives Describe simple changes and ideas/objects that remain the same Understand that some things change while other items remain the same and some are new	Identify similarities and difference between ways of life at different times Identify simple reasons for changes	Identify reasons for change and reasons for continuities Identify what the situation was like before the change occurred Compare different periods of history and identify changes and continuity Describe the changes and continuity between different periods of history Identify the links between different societies	Make links between events and changes within and across different time periods / societies Identify the reasons for changes and continuity Describe the links between main events, similarities and changes within and across different periods/studied Describe the links between different societies Explain the reasons for changes and continuity using the vocabulary and terms of the period as well Analyse and present the reasons for changes and continuity
Cause and consequence	Knowledge	Know that everyday objects have changed as new	Know that changes may come about because of	• Know that the actions of people can be the cause of change (e.g. Lord Shaftesbury) • Know that advancements in science and technology can be the cause of change	Know that members of society standing up for their rights can be the cause of change
