

Research a significant explorer of your choice and design a poster about them. Include facts about what they did to have an impact on history and pictures showing their achievements.

*Paint a picture of a significant explorer of your choice.
Write a paragraph to go with it to explain why they are considered significant.*

“

THE WORLD
OPENS UP TO THOSE WHO DARE TO EXPLORE IT.

GERTRUDE BELL
1868-1926

Make a pretend compass inspired by the one used by Columbus to explore the seas.

Pretend you are a world explorer such as Christopher Columbus; write a diary entry about your struggles or about discovering new lands.

Home Learning Ideas!

Significant Explorers – YEAR 2

Complete at least one activity from the suggestions on this sheet.

Neil Armstrong was the first man on the moon.

Can you make a model of Apollo 11?

*Make your own 3D world, a world that has never been explored before!
Label different zones.*

Think about someone that you think is significant today. Make a collage board with pictures and facts about why they are significant.

*Find out significant events in an explorer's life.
Order them correctly on a timeline.*