

Vocabulary Organiser - Shackleton's Journey

expedition	A journey undertaken by a group of people with a particular purpose, especially that of exploration, research, or war.
drawn to	To be attracted to something – to move closer.
keen	To be eager, interested, or enthusiastic about something.
recruitment	The action of enlisting new people into something, particularly the armed forces.
candidate	A person who applies for a job or is nominated.
endurance	An ability to continue or last, despite fatigue, stress or other adverse conditions.
vessel	A ship or large boat.
conquer (homonym)	To take control of a place by force To successfully overcome a problem or weakness fond	Having an affection or liking for something.
abundant	Something is abundant if it is available in large quantities.
morale	The attitude, spirit or confidence of a person or group of people at a particular time.
blizzard	A severe snow storm in high winds.
precipice	A very steep rock face or cliff.
altitude	The height of an object or something that is at a great height.