

Parents are reminded not to swear at the school gates

It has been reported that adults are swearing and using inappropriate language whilst waiting for the school gates to open for the Reception and Nursery children.

We would ask that you consider the other adults and especially the children who are waiting. Children get upset when they hear these kinds of words and can copy them.

Any adult who is heard to be using inappropriate language will be asked to leave the school premises.