

Year 1: Have children always lived like me?

50's

60's

70's

80's

90's

present

Target Memories:

Key Vocabulary:

Toys were originally made from wood

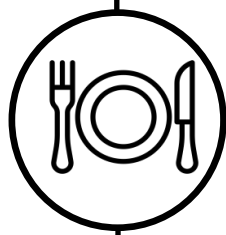

Televisions originally started in black and white

Computer games were introduced in the 1980's.

Computer games are now portable.

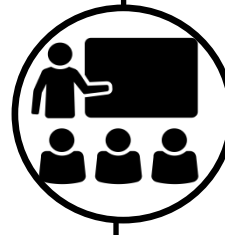

Food was rationed so people could only have a fixed amount.

People had to grow and harvest their own food.

Convenience food such as microwave meals made making food easier for people.

Children could leave school at 10 years old.

Harrow Gate Primary opened in 1955.

Corporal punishment was used in schools to physically punish children.

rationing: to allow someone to only have a fixed amount of something.

convenience food: food already prepared so the consumer doesn't need to.

corporal punishment: physical punishment.

diet: the different types of food you need to eat.

take away: a meal cooked somewhere else and eaten at home.

portable: easily carried or moved.

interactive: things that react to each other.