

Our Core Values

Reflection

We will work with our families, reflecting on feedback, in order to continue to develop our strategies

Resilience

We will continue to adopt and develop to support each other as needs change

Respect

We will continue to listen, act promptly and keep each other informed. We will respect each other and remain professional in our communications in line with zero tolerance

Relationships

We will continue to communicate with and work with our families, building positive, honest relationships to support us both in helping children succeed

Responsibility

We will continue to work to each understand our responsibilities and make a positive difference to our children. We will in our communications, model positive behaviours to the children
