Newsletter No. 20

24th February 2023

Dear Parents and Carers

As I have shared with you previously, the National Education Union (NEU) have asked their members to take strike action on several dates over the next few weeks. The remaining dates affecting the north-west region are:

- Tuesday 28th February 2023
- Wednesday 15th March 2023
- Thursday 16th March 2023

As last time, the information we have at this point, indicates that the academy will open as usual on Tuesday 28th February 2023 to all pupils. Should there be any significant change then I will communicate this to you.

It is important to note that the strike is happening because of a national dispute between unions and the government regarding teachers' pay and not because of any issues related specifically to our academy.

Today Miss Ward and a group of children took part in a curling competition; they were fantastic. We came second out of twelve schools which is such an amazing achievement. We are so proud of them, and the children looked great in their new tops too.

As an academy, reading is something that we thoroughly enjoy and we recognise what an important life skill it is. In order to celebrate the wonderfulness of reading we are inviting the children to come into school on Thursday 2nd March in their pyjamas or dressed as their favourite book character. We will carry on this celebration of books on Friday 3rd March by hosting a book fair – please see below for further details.

Have a lovely weekend,

World Book Day

On Thursday 2nd March we will be celebrating World Book Day in the academy. The children can choose to come into school dressed as their favourite book character or in their pyjamas ready for a bedtime story. After the success of our last book fair in the Autumn term, we will also be holding a book fair on Friday 3rd March, in partnership with Usborne books. The children will have the opportunity to use their world book day tokens towards the purchase of a new book.

FARMERS WIFE BOOK BARN

<https://usborne.com/gb/organiser/farmerswifebookbarn/>

<https://www.facebook.com/farmerswifebookbarn>

Dear Parent/Guardian,

We have some exciting news! On Friday 3rd March, we will be holding another School Book Fair!

The Book Fair is being organised again in conjunction with Farmers Wife Book Barn and every book purchased will go towards brand new FREE books for our school. The more books bought at the Book Fair, the more free books your school could receive. As a result of the last Book Fair in October, thanks to all your book purchases, our school was entitled to £690 of free books! How amazing is that!

So, similar to last time, we suggest that no more than £5 be brought into school to be spent at the Book Fair. Please could we ask for the money to be sent in a sealed, named envelope on Friday 3rd March. Your child/ren will then get the chance to visit the Book Fair and purchase a book of their choice.

As the Book Fair is being held during World Book Day week, children will also be given the opportunity to spend their World Book Day tokens and receive £1.00 discount off any book they choose to buy.

Farmers Wife Book Barn will remain on the school premises till 4:00pm, should any parents also wish to visit the Book Fair.

Yours faithfully,

In partnership with
USBORNE

You're invited to our Book Fair
