

CONSENT FOR SCHOOL VISITS

As part of the school curriculum, pupils will take part in short walks in the Henley area. For example, to visit the library, Church or to observe buildings in the area.

These visits take place during school time and will involve no expense or the use of transport. You will, however, have received prior notice of the visit via the school newsletter/termly phase letter.

*I agree to my child _____ in Class _____ taking part in local visits during the school year September 2018 – July 2019.

*I do not agree to my child _____ in Class _____ taking part in local visits during the school year September 2018 – July 2019.
