

Repeated lateness will mean that the Local Authority Attendance Officer may telephone you or visit you at home.

Making sure that you child is prepared for school & arrives on time will enable your child to fully concentrate in class.

Consider that your child may feel the 'odd one out' when walking into a class late.

Teaching your child the importance of being punctual will help them in the future.

Being late could result in your child being marked as U = late after registration, which in term effects their percentage attendance
