Drodzy Rodzice i Opiekunowie,

Mam nadzieję, że mają się Państwo dobrze.

To był naprawdę pozytywny tydzień w Hillside. We wtorek obchodziliśmy „Dzień Europejski”. Języków”. Pani Doling poprowadziła apele rozpoczynające to wydarzenie. Pani Doling powiedziała: „Jestem zachwycona tym, jak przeprowadzono Europejski Dzień Języków w Hillside był udany. Wszystkie dzieci począwszy, od przedszkola aż do klas 6, były zaangażowane w swoją naukę o językach i kulturach wielu różnych Krajów Europejskich. Szczęśliwie, wszyscy są naprawdę zachwyceni nauką języków w przyszłości.” Przez cały dzień wszystkie zajęcia zakończyły się różnorodnymi lekcjami związanymi z krajami europejskimi. To była doskonała okazja, aby zarówno świętować to, co cudowne:

różnorodność języków europejskich używanych w naszej szkole i poza nią i wprowadzenia na rynek naszego nowego nowożytnego języka obcego francuskiego fantastycznego i zasobow, z których będą korzystać nauczyciele i uczniowie. Willow w klasa 6 –tej stwierdziła: „Bardzo podobał mi się Europejski Dzień Języków, ponieważ lubię poznawać inne kraje i to, jakie są fascynujące.

Sticky questions zostały uruchomione w Hillside!

W tym tygodniu każde dziecko zabrało do domu soczystą łamigłówkę filozoficzną przyklepioną do swetra. Zachęcamy wszystkich, aby porozmawiali o tym w domu z rodziną, a następnie wrócili do szkoły następnego dnia z przemyśleniami .

Życzę Państwu wspaniałego weekendu!

Dziękuję za Państwa wsparcie.

*Wszystkiego najlepszego,
Mrs Wass*

National Online Safety #WakeUpWednesday 14 WAYS TO BE KIND ONLINE

Showing kindness online can mean so much to someone else. It is a choice we can all make that helps others, puts people's needs before our own and which can generate feelings of empathy and compassion. Small gestures can have a large impact and often one act of kindness can lead to more, making the world a happier and more positive place. That's why we've created this guide to suggest a few simple 'acts of kindness online' that can benefit people's mental health, support their wellbeing and encourage a more positive approach to engaging online.

- 1. BE POSITIVE
Post about things that make you happy and that you're thankful for. It could brighten up someone else's day.
- 2. OFFER TO HELP
Sometimes a friend or family member might post a question online or ask for help with something they can't do themselves. If you know the answer or are able to offer help, provide support and send a response. Something that may be easy for you might be difficult for someone else.
- 3. SHOW APPRECIATION TO OTHERS
If somebody you know has done something good or shown kindness themselves, thank them for it. It costs nothing and showing them that you appreciate it means so much.
- 4. SHARE FUNNY VIDEOS OR IMAGES WITH FRIENDS & FAMILY
We often come across funny videos or images online that make us laugh and then we move on. If you found it funny, your friends and family might too. It could help someone smile who may be having a bad day.
- 5. LIKE, LOVE & CELEBRATE
If somebody posts something that you like on social media, like it, love it or celebrate it. It's a small gesture but could mean a lot.
- 6. VIDEO CALL YOUR FRIENDS & FAMILY
It can be easy to be consumed by daily routine. Using apps like Zoom, FaceTime or WhatsApp are great for connecting with others far away and shows you're thinking of them even though you can't physically meet them in person.
- 7. TELL SOMEONE YOU'RE THINKING OF THEM
We can't always tell how people are feeling online and just dropping somebody a message to ask if they're ok or that you're thinking of them could literally make their day.
- 8. SHARE POSITIVE POSTS
If you see something online that inspires you, share it with people you know. An inspirational quote, a beautiful photo or a motivational video can lift spirits, improve self-esteem and help make people feel better about themselves.
- 9. HOST AN ONLINE QUIZ
Video conferencing apps are a great way to get friends and family together. If you know someone who is feeling lonely, host an online quiz and invite them to join in. It could really cheer them up.
- 10. THINK BEFORE YOU COMMENT
Sometimes thinking before you act can be just as significant as acting in the first place. Showing thought before you comment could stop you posting something hurtful, offensive or negative. It's always better to post positively or post nothing at all.
- 11. BE COMPASSIONATE & UNDERSTANDING
Being empathetic towards others and their situation is often an act of kindness and selflessness that gets overlooked. If you notice someone who is upset, drop them a message and offer to listen.
- 12. CONNECT FRIENDS & FAMILY WITH SIMILAR INTERESTS
You may know two people amongst your friends and family who you trust and know well who have similar interests and likes. Introducing them can be a great way for them to make new friends but remember to always ask their permission first.
- 13. RECOMMEND SOMETHING YOU ENJOY DOING TO OTHERS
If you enjoy doing something online, such as playing a game, or if you've found a great learning resource, share it with others. Even if you've watched a good film, letting others know can be an act of generosity that brings them excitement or pleasure at a time when they might need it the most.
- 14. PRAISE OTHERS FOR THEIR ACHIEVEMENTS
Sometimes your friends or family might post something online that they're proud to have done. It might be an exam they've passed, learning a new skill or just completing a task. Either way, it's always kind to recognise hard work and effort through praise and celebration.
