

IN YEAR 13? IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR EXAMS

If you are in Year 13 and study A Levels you will be sitting your mock exams after the Christmas break. Your timetable for these is now available via your Cedar homepage.

These are a vital part of helping you to succeed in your final examinations, not only ensuring that you are prepared for these, but also helping teachers to identify any additional support that may be required.

Please check your timetable carefully - attendance at these is compulsory.

After Christmas we will share more about our Time to Revise support package. This is designed to support you during the exam period and will include free resources, revision support sessions, tea and chat and access to stress busting techniques. Further details will be given in tutorial.

Good luck with your revision, and your exams!
