

DO YOU WRITE CREATIVELY AND WOULD LIKE YOUR WORK PUBLISHING?

Do you write creatively? Do you produce poetry or short stories? Our HNC Journalists are offering students the chance to publish their work in the HNC Echo on a one off or a regular basis as part of a special feature.

If you would like to join the Echo as a journalist, growing your writing skills and improving your future prospects, it is not too late to join. Simply email h.doyle@huddnewcoll.ac.uk for further details.

COMING UP IN TUTORIAL

Your tutorial session is an important part of your HNC experience, preparing you for the future and ensuring you graduate from HNC as a resilient and well-rounded individual. Next week we have a range of topics coming up including:

- Change Starts with Us - a range of activities for Year 12 students as part of Anti-Bullying Week 2019. This will help you explore why respect is so crucial, and how bullying can sometimes take unexpected forms
- On a Level 2 Programme? We'll be getting you ready for your Progression Fair and next steps
- Year 13 students will continue to be supported with UCAS applications, and strategies for success - this week we will be helping you to build your resilience in preparation for your forthcoming examinations

DIVERSITY WEEK

Next week is our first Diversity Week. We have an exciting week of activities planned to celebrate our diverse community. The theme of the week this year is 'Hidden Disabilities'. Activities include:

Monday: Visual impairment day. Join us in the Dining Area to meet our visiting guide dog puppies and experience the visual impairment sensory unit

Tuesday: Add a leaf to our 'Tree of Kindness' to send a positive anti-bullying message. We'll also be welcoming therapy dog, Toby, to College.

Wednesday: Teenage cancer awareness day. We will be welcoming former HNC student Sarah Dransfield from the Laura Crane Teenage Cancer Trust

Thursday: Allergy awareness day. Join us for an allergy symbol quiz.

Friday 15th November: Respect competition launched! Full details will be in next week's Moodle News Bites.

Year 11 Open Event

If you know someone in Year 11, we have an Open Event on Saturday 23rd November from 10am - visit our website for full details

Fire drill

A huge thank you to all students who helped our recent fire drill run smoothly - much appreciated
