Author of the Term

Summer Term 2022

Name:	Judith Kerr
Appearance:
Information:	Judith Kerr was born in Germany in 1923. She died in 2019 aged 95. She sold over 10 million copies of her books around the world. Judith moved from Germany to Britain in 1936, which is where she then lived for the rest of her life. During the Second World War, Judith worked for the Red Cross, helping wounded soldiers. She started to write books when her own children were learning to read. The character Mog, who she wrote 17 books about, was based on a real life tabby cat who would sit on her lap whilst she wrote.
