

GETTING YOUR A LEVEL RESULTS? WHAT NEXT?

However you are feeling about your results we can help. Have a look at these situations... any of them sound like you? This advice will help.

I was really disappointed with my results & didn't get the grades I need...

That will hurt, but don't panic. There is always something you can do. Get in touch with the University/Employer as soon as possible. They may still let you take up your place or be able to offer you a place on another course. Talk to your school, college and Careers Adviser as soon as possible. They will be able to help you review your situation and see the full range of options available.

My results are better than I thought...

There might be some great opportunities now available to you that you had thought were out of your reach, perhaps on another course at the same or different University. If you feel that the options you had chosen are no longer right for you talk to your school, college and Careers Adviser asap!

I don't understand some of my results...

If there is anything in on your grades slip that doesn't make sense to you, perhaps a grade you can't quite believe or an error in the modules and courses you've taken, then speak to a member of staff at your school straight away.

Where else can I get help?

For online help and advice visit <https://nationalcareers.service.gov.uk/> or ring the National Careers Service & UCAS helpline 0800 100 900 for free, expert, and independent advice. For more advice and guidance see <https://www.ucas.com/undergraduate/results-confirmation-and-clearing/results/what-your-results-mean> & <https://www.careersandenterprise.co.uk/>

Your schools Careers Adviser will be available online on the 18th and 19th, if you would like to discuss your next steps, please email info@careernorth.co.uk (Please note this is not for grades appeal)

In addition, there are remote face to face appointments available on school cloud and can be booked at <https://holyfamilyhighschool.schoolcloud.co.uk/>