Understand

U5.2.1	Show an understanding of scripture passages that speak of David's life, recognising the intended audience and the historical context
U5.2.2	Show an understanding of some gospel passages that present Jesus as the fulfilment of the promise to David (Matt 1:1-17; Lk 1:32-33), recognising the gospel writers are writing for Christians. Recognise links with God's covenant with Abraham.
U5.2.3	Use specialist vocabulary to describe and explain the nature of David's kingship in the Old Testament, with reference to the passages that speak of David's kingship and Psalm 21:1-7.
U5.2.4	Use developing specialist vocabulary. Recognise that David is a model of prayer, referencing one of the psalms.
U5.2.5	Know that a virtue is a positive habit that helps people live a good life. (RVE)

Discern

D5.2.1	Playing with possibilities, asking 'what if?' questions that explore why God especially values those the world overlooks. For example, what if Samuel had followed his own judgement rather than God's in choosing a king? What is the possibility of those values being overlooked in today's communities? (RVE)
D5.2.2	Wondering about the imagery of shepherd used in the scripture passages studied and explore how it helps them, as readers, understand servant leadership.
D5.2.3	Exploring artistic representations of the O Antiphons, describe what they represent, and say which they prefer, giving reasons for their choice.

Respond

R5.2.1	Reflecting on your understanding of David and the idea of a leader as a shepherd
R5.2.2	Talking with others about their ideas about leadership, thinking about what it means to be a good shepherd today. (RVE)
R5.2.3	Considering how their own lives and the future of the communities to which they belong could be transformed by offering their own lives in service to others, as part of their preparation during Advent. (RVE)
