Farewell & Good Luck!

We would like to share some important news with families. At the end of this Autumn term, we will be saying a very fond farewell to Miss Coleman, who will be leaving Holy Family to take up an exciting new role as Assistant Head Teacher and SENCO in Suffolk.

Miss Coleman has been an incredible member of our school community and I know she will be dearly missed by children, parents and staff alike.

During her time with us, she has made a remarkable contribution in many roles, including serving as our SENCO and playing a key part in setting up and running our school nursery. We have been fortunate to have her and wish her every success and happiness in the future.

For the remainder of this academic year, Mrs Howell will be taking over the teaching within the nursery. Mrs Howell brings over 15 years of teaching experience across a variety of settings and we are confident she will do an amazing job. To ensure a smooth transition, Miss Coleman and Mrs Howell will work closely together throughout the rest of this term.

Miss Coleman's SENCO responsibilities will be shared among our existing teaching staff and we will provide further details about this arrangement in the coming weeks.

Please join us in thanking Miss Coleman for her outstanding dedication and service to our school. She has been an inspiration to us all and we will miss her greatly - not just her professionalism, but for her warmth and joy she has brought to our school family.

Thank you for your continued support!

Happy Birthday
