

Dreams Are Meant To Come True

Is there any dream that you possess,
And yearn to achieve it more or less;
Then what are you waiting for, tell me,
No excuse is as convincing as your dream can be.

The dream you have been dreaming since you were small,
Or have acquired it recently, having become tall;
It's hiding in your heart, ruling your mind'
Be it in any sphere, or of any kind.

The dream that you have been devoted to,
Can be achieved by none, but only you;
You'll have to work really hard, persevere a lot,
Every time you falter, just give it another shot.

Convert all your mistakes to stepping stones of success,
Believe in yourself and in God, whenever in a mess;
I bet your dream will soon be achieved by you,
After all, all dreams are meant to come true!
