Mark 9:2-10
2nd Sunday of Lent

IN THE GOSPEL TODAY

Jesus takes three of his friends, Peter, James and John, up to a high mountain. While they are there, Jesus' clothes become a dazzling white. Jesus' friends see two very special prophets with him, Elijah and Moses. Knowing these are very special people, Peter asks if he can make tents for them. Then a cloud appears and they hear God the Father saying, "This is my dear Son – listen to him".

My name is _____

SHINE BRIGHT

This very special event is known by a long word. Can you follow the path and find the letters, one at a time, to make the word?

Ask a grown up to help you pronounce it. How many smaller words can you make from this one word?

Use the back of the sheet.

5 = good

10 = excellent

15 = outstanding!

Listen to God

We can hear God in nature and the voices of people we love.

Draw inside this ear the good things you have heard today.

Wordsearch

How many words from today's Gospel can you find in the wordsearch?
