AUTHOR OF THE MONTH! ANTHONY BROWNE

This is what Anthony Browne says:

Probably my most successful book is Gorilla, published in 1983, and it was during this period that I was badly bitten by a gorilla whilst being filmed for television at my local zoo.

I have published 50 books, and amongst the awards that my books have won are the Kate Greenaway medal twice, and the Kurt Maschler 'Emil" three times. In 2000 I was awarded the Hans Christian Andersen Medal, an international award given to an illustrator for their body of work. I was the first British illustrator to receive the award. My books are translated into 26 languages and my illustrations have been exhibited in many countries - U.S.A., Mexico, Venezuela, Colombia, France, Korea, Italy, Germany, Holland, Japan, and Taiwan, and I've had the pleasure of visiting these places and working with local children and meeting other illustrators.

Mrs Westray says: Anthony Browne is one of my favourite children's Authors. His illustrations have a hidden depth and you will always find something unusual hidden within them! All ages of children (and adults) enjoy his books!

Book recommendations from Holy Family staff

Mr Heron's pick is "Oi Cat" by Kes Gray and Jim Field.

This is an utterly hilarious book from the "Oi" series of books. It is packed full of rhythm and rhyme with interesting creatures exhibiting unusual features. Join them on a zany adventure of sedentary conundrums. Without giving too much away, let's just say that the cunning cat comes out on top in the end...

Mrs Wilson's pick for Year 6 is

Year 6 book recommendation for our Spring term topic - 'Extreme Earth.'

The story is about Shackleton's monumental expedition to cross Antarctica. The captivating clear pictures make it feel like you are there, journeying with Shackleton.
