

The Prayer

Lord, thank you for walking with us
through the seasons of our lives.
For the winter, when we are held safe in your arms through the darkness.
For the hope of spring, as we are filled with new promise and life.
For summertime, full of warmth and colour
And for autumn days as leaves fall to seed
new growth.
You are always with us.

Amen

Message from the Headteacher

This is the longest term of the academic year, and I want to congratulate the children for their continued enthusiasm and hard work in all of their lessons.

Just a reminder that the children will not be in school tomorrow.

To commemorate Armistice Day and Remembrance Sunday we will be selling British Legion poppies in school the first week back. The week commencing 2nd November, all classes will be taking part in Remembrance activities and we will be sharing this work with you in our first newsletter back.

Throughout November, the whole school will be taking part in a White Rose maths challenge called

BARVEMBER

'Barvember'. This is a daily challenge where children are encouraged to use bar modelling to answer worded problems. The bar model is a useful tool that helps children visualise and then solve maths problems as some of the most complex problems can be seen much more easily when represented visually.

Calling all young writers!

Young Writer's have launched a competition for children to take part in a creative writing project. There are two age categories and two different tasks. Please see whole school dojo for more information.

Holy Trinity Baby Boom

Congratulations to four member, and ex-members, of staff: Nicola Jenkins, whose first grandson, Teddy, has arrived. Di Woolley, who has welcomed her third grandchild, and first granddaughter, Lily. Anita Oliveri, who welcomed her tenth grandchild, Zoya, and Mandy Smart who welcomed her first grandchild, a little girl named Lexi Marie. I would also like to wish, on behalf of everybody at Holy Trinity, a safe arrival for Mrs Medler's second child as she starts her maternity leave at the end of this week. We will, of course, let you know as soon as the baby is born.

Have a safe and restful half term.
