Dear Parents,

Thank you for your input into the consultation document across the course of the last week. The Board of Directors, CEO, Central Team and Headteachers' have worked together in order to begin responding to the most common questions and we hope to get this out to you by the end of next week.

There were a large number of positive comments, a large range of excellent questions, some of which require more time to work out and make checks against and, a series of statements which we will take on board but do not require a response.

We will offer the Q&A (Questions and Answers) sheet next week once completed fully and will continue to respond to any new questions so please do ensure you respond.

Thank you.

Kind Regards,

Mrs. Charlene Gethin

Chief Executive Officer
