

Ingrow Primary School

Parent Information Fact Sheet: Behaviour Curriculum

"Be the best you can be"

Morning Arrival & Line-Up Routine

- The school bell will ring 8.40am
- Register Order Line-Up: Every morning when the teacher comes out to greet the children, all pupils line up in register order. This routine creates predictability, reduces anxiety, and allows staff to quickly register and safely transition classes into school.

OUR "BEE" VALUES & RULES

BEE Safe

- Be in the right place
- Safe hands & safe feet
- Walk single file in silence
- Follow instructions

BEE Respectful

- Look and listen
- Take turns
- Take care for belongings
- Use manners always

BEE Kind

- Include everyone
- We help our friends and grown ups
- Use kind words

BEE Inquisitive

- Try new things and ask "How?" & "Why?"
- Work hard and never give up
- Solve problems

Celebrating Positive Choices

We focus on noticing and rewarding good choices daily through:

- ClassDojo Points & Stickers: Earning whole-class rewards and celebrations.
- 'Going for Gold' Awards: Certificate & school pencil for exceptional effort and resilience.
- Weekly VIP Awards: Spotlighting children meeting specific bee rule targets.

Supporting Emotional Regulation

The Zones of Regulation We teach children to recognise their emotions using 4 zones and build a personal "toolbox" of calming strategies:

 BLUE Sad, Tired, Slow	 GREEN Calm, Ready to Learn
 YELLOW Frustrated, Silly, Anxious	 RED Overwhelmed, Out of Control

Parent & Carer Partnership: Working Together

We operate an open-door policy and believe strong partnerships between home and school are vital for your child's success. If you ever have questions or wish to discuss your child's social-emotional progress, please speak to the class teacher.
