

Dear pupils, parents and staff.

We are the Ingrow Primary School Councillors, in this letter we would like to introduce ourselves and outline our roles.

My name is Isabella and I was elected chairperson for our school council. My job is to help my classmates and other people in school by listening to and passing on the ideas of year 6 Kestrels.

My name is Caleb, I am the vice-chairperson for our school council and I am from Falcons. My job is to listen to my friends and other people to improve school and make it a safe place and always care about people when they're upset.

Hi, my name is Hope and my job is to make people feel comfortable in school and pass on ideas from Year 5 Deer.

Hello, I am Alan and I am the school councillor for Bats. My job is to improve the school by passing on what my friends say in Bats. If anyone is upset, I will help them.

My name is Iris and I'm a frog. My job is to make people feel welcome and be a good example by following the Bee Rules.

Hi my name is Frankie; my job is to make school a better place by listening to people in Year 4 Badgers and sharing what we could do to make school a better place.

Hi everyone, my name is Hadi and I am a Beaver. My job is to help my classmates and make them happy.

Hi, my name is Sierra and I am a mole. I help my friends all the time to make the school a better place.

Hi, my name is Elsie and I am an Otter. My job is to make the school a better place.

Hi my name is Ada, my job is to make the school better by talking to and listening to my friends.

Hi my name is Frankie and my job is to make school a better place. I will help people feel comfortable and welcome.

My name is Logan, my job is to make school a better place.

Together our job is to represent the students of Ingrow by listening to their thoughts and views and involve them in decision making about school life and school projects.

The school council helps make our school a better place by talking with teachers and grown-ups to share what students think and what they want.

We are all very excited to work together as a team to make Ingrow the BEST it can be!

Ingrow Primary School Council.
