

Personal Development 2020-2021

Personal Development Themes
Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
- Spiritual, moral, social and cultural development	- Healthy living - British Values	- Equality and diversity	- Careers guidance	- Citizenship	- Preparation for next stage

Subject	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Year 7	Learners will link their discussions about positive influences in life and positive relationships with other cultures and whether they may/may not have the same relationships and influences.	Learners will address the idea of particular societies in Britain still being subjected to discrimination and stereotyping in modern society.	Learners will look at their particular goal and think about whether there would be equality for all societies in achieving that goal, for example becoming a doctor.	Learners will have the opportunity to think about their future career choices and how the strategies to manage stress, and maintain a positive lifestyle can impact on their ability to fulfil their career potential.	Learners will be given the opportunity to link happy and healthy relationships to promoting positive citizenship.	Learners will be able to have taster of what they will be learning in RSE in the next academic year.
Year 8	Learners will look at the importance of marriage and how it differs between cultures.	Learners will explore the idea of community projects promoting core British values.	Learners will look at the employment market and whether it promotes equality and diversity.	Learners will be given the opportunity to think about their future career choices a how to maintain positive mental health.	Learners will look at the idea of media and how it can influence relationships.	Learners will be able to have taster of what they will be learning in RSE in the next academic year.
Year 9	Learners will look at how self-esteem and identity differs across cultures and whether cultures have an impact in risk taking behaviours	Learners will focus on core British Values and how we should respond to prejudice, discrimination and bullying	Learners will be able to focus on diversity and the impact mental health has across different societies and whether the support	Learners will be able to research potential careers in the field of mental health and substance misuse	Learners will be able to look at the age of consent and how it differs across countries.	Learners will be able to have taster of what they will be learning in RSE in the next academic year.

Personal Development 2020-2021

			offered promotes equality.
Year 10	Learners will look at whether online behaviours differ between cultures and social situations.	Learners will focus on how equal the UK and how Equality is the focus of our British values	Learners will look at the idea of donation and whether it can be accessed equally by all members of different societies.	Learners will have the opportunity to think of how their physical health can impact on their future career choices.	Learners will look at the notion of love and how it is perceived through society.	Learners will be able to have taster of what they will be learning in RSE in the next academic year.
Year 11						