

Curriculum and Assessment Pathways 2022-2023

Key Stage	Curriculum Offer	Assessment
1	Most students will follow the EYFS curriculum framework; EYFS Topic webs and Medium Term Plans Some students who go straight into our PLMD Specialist provision will follow the sensory-based curriculum for primary topic webs and medium term plans.	All students EYFS Framework for assessment
2	Most students will follow the KS2 Topic based curriculum, Topic webs and Medium Term Plans Some students who are in our PLMD Specialist provision will follow the sensory-based curriculum for primary topic webs and medium term plans.	Most students will be assessed against the JGS Levels Some students will continue being assessed against the EYFS Framework. Some students working below the JGS Levels in our PMLD Specialist provision will be assessed against Routes for Learning.
3	Most Students will follow the KS3 Topic based curriculum Some students who are in our PLMD Specialist provision will follow the sensory-based curriculum for Secondary topic webs and medium term plans.	All of our students will be assessed against the JGS Food Tec Awards. Most students will be assessed against the JGS Levels. Some students working below the JGS Levels in our PMLD Specialist provision will be assessed against Routes for Learning. Some students working in the ASC Specialist provision will be assessed against the AET Assessment Framework. All of our students will be assessed against the Food Technology Award.

4	Most Students will follow the KS4 Topic based curriculum Some students who are in our PMLD Specialist provision will follow the sensory-based curriculum for Secondary topic webs and medium term plans.	Most students will be assessed against the JGS Levels Some of our most able students will access City and Guilds Entry Level or functional skills and sit an exam at the end of the year. Some students working below the JGS Levels in our PMLD Specialist provision will be assessed against Routes for Learning. Some students working in the ASC Specialist provision will be assessed against the AET Assessment Framework. All students will access AQA Units Awards in Food Technology and will be assessed at pre or entry level.
FE	Most of our students will access OCR Life and Living, this forms the basis of the curriculum in FE – They will also access ASDAN for employability and the world of work Some students who are in our PMLD Specialist provision will access ASDAN My Independence All students have PLODS outlining their own curriculum. This includes community learning, TITAN, transition and work experience.	Most of our students will be assessed against the achievement continuum for OCR Life and Living Entry 1 or pass / fail at Entry 2, 3. Work will be externally moderated. Some students will be assessed against the achievement continuum for ASDAN. Work will be externally moderated Some students working below the JGS Levels in our PMLD Specialist provision will be assessed against Routes for Learning. All of our students are assessed against TITAN.

	All will access Literacy and maths sessions either through OCR Entry Level 1,2,3 or City and Guilds Entry Level	Some of our most able students will access City and Guilds Entry Level or functional skills and sit an exam at the end of the year. Some students working in the ASC Specialist provision will be assessed against the AET Assessment Framework.
--	---	--

Additional curriculum/assessments

Behaviour for learning assessments are completed annually throughout the students time at school

These additional curriculum's and associated assessments are student specific;

- Therapy plans and review; SALT, OT, Physio
- Behaviour Support; RMP's, PHP's
- Clever Finger (Fine Motor Control program)
- Phases of Play Assessments
- Sensory diets and Sensory Profiles
- Communication systems; ACC, PECS, Signalong.
- JGS Reading Scheme
- Nature and Nurture
- Wellbeing 1:1 sessions
- Young Cooks
- Rebound Therapy
- Hydrotherapy

- Zones of Regulation