

...a Storyteller

- I listen to stories every day
- I can access books and stories everyday
- I have opportunities to practise writing in a variety of ways
- I perform stories everyday

...a Historian

- I talk about the days of the week everyday, including yesterday and upcoming days
- I talk about and remember past events in our lives and link them to current events
- I sequence the day using our visual timetable

...a Programmer

- I sequence key events in the day using sequencing language: first, next, then and after
- I use and follow positional language throughout my day, when lining up, climbing on the climbing frame and navigating our bikes around the track
- I use the iPads daily

...a Geographer

- I explore the Forest School area every week and observe seasonal changes
- I explore different types of soil, mud, sand and dirt
- I play with animal toys in their correct habitat

...an Artist

- I express myself everyday
- I paint and draw everyday, using my imagination to create something beautiful
- I can choose from a range of tools to develop my artistic skills
- I mix colours to create new shades and tones
- I sculpt using the playdough

...a sportsman

- I climb the climbing frame using my core muscles and strength
- I can ride and steer a bike around a track

...a Designer

- I build with bricks, in different shapes and shapes, constructing new and exciting things
- I use different pieces of junk to build something remarkable

...a Mathematician

- I count who is in class everyday and chart the number of lunches each morning
- I see numbers around the classroom and outdoor area all day
- I create patterns
- I sequence and order the day at the start of each day

...a Scientist

- I explore different materials and how they react in the water tray, I ask if it will float or sink? How can I make the water flow down?
- I observe seasonal changes the impact it happens on the environment
- I explore different habitats around the school

...a Musician

- I sing songs everyday
- I listen to music every day
- I count with rhythm everyday