Acceptable Internet Use Statement

For Staff and Pupils

The computer system is owned by the school and is made available to pupils to further their education and to staff to enhance their professional activities including teaching, research, administration and management. The school's Internet Access policy has been drawn up to protect all parties - the pupils, the staff and the school.

The school reserves the right to examine or delete any files that may be held on its computer system or to monitor any Internet sites visited.

Staff and pupils requesting Internet access should sign a copy of this Acceptable Internet Use Statement and return it to school.

- All Internet activity should be appropriate to staff professional activity or the pupil's education;
- Activity that threatens the integrity of the school ICT systems, or activity that attacks or corrupts other systems is forbidden;
- Users are responsible for all emails sent and for contacts made that may result in email being received;
- Use for personal financial gain, gambling, political purposes or advertising is forbidden;
- Copyright of materials must be respected;
- Posting anonymous messages and forwarding chain letters is forbidden;
- As email can be forwarded or inadvertently be sent to the wrong person, the same professional levels of language and content should be applied as for letters and other media;
- Use of the network to access inappropriate materials such as pornographic, racist or offensive material is forbidden.
