

Kingsfield Chronicle

Week ending: 13.10.23

Ready, Respectful, Safe

Dear Parents / Carers,

This week, we have had a relatively quiet time in school. Children have been working hard whilst staff have learnt about our new behaviour logging system – more information to follow in future newsletters.

#HelloYellow

We have all taken part in Children's Mental Health Week including celebrating World Mental Health Day on Tuesday. Thank you so much for your donations. The monies raised were in excess of £90 for Young Minds.

We are currently in the process of organising parent consultations so please look out for the link next week to sign up for a slot on either the 1st or 2nd November.

In today's assembly, we presented the new Peer Mediators with their lanyards. Well done to Diya, Poppy, Milasi, Natalia, Aiden, Bobby, Antonina, Isabella, Miram, Khole S, Lily W, Oliwia, Juda, Emily and Lily. Thank you to Mrs. Culyer for the training course that she has run for them. I am sure they will be amazing in the role.

Earlier this week, you were made aware that Ms. Green will be joining me on Monday as the new interim Headteacher for the start of a week's handover. I am sure she will be walking around the grounds and the building with me throughout the week so please do come and say hello. Next week will be my last one at Kingsfield and I know that I will have a great deal of mixed emotions as I say goodbye to you, your amazing children and the wonderful staffing team.

Have a great weekend!

Mrs. Coates
