Week ending: 08.01.21

Ready, Respectful, Safe

Dear Parents / Carers,

To say the start to 2021 has been challenging is quite an understatement! However, the team have rallied round and, with your support, it has meant that we have a fantastic remote learning offer in place. Over the next week or so we will be adding further challenges for the children to take part in. We are also looking to establish a 'learning wall' using our current website provider which should make navigation much easier for us all.

On top of the curriculum offer that we have uploaded to the website, there are a great number of free websites that can support learning. From Monday, BBC live lessons are back and can be found at <https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/live-lessons>.

There is also the Oak Academy which has been established by the government to support home learning. You can access this website by going to <https://www.thenational.academy/>.

I hope that you are all staying safe and well.

Have a lovely weekend!

Mrs. Coates

Headteacher's Challenge—Week 1

Dear Children,

Your challenge, should you choose to accept it, is to write the following poem in your neatest handwriting. You can add a border and pictures as well if you wish! Email a photograph to your class teacher and the best ones will be chosen to be in next week's newsletter. Hopefully, we will gather lots of lovely work that we can display in school and virtually so that you can see what everyone has been doing.

One of my favourite poets is Allan Ahlberg. He writes poems that are happy, sad, funny and serious. This one is a comical take on a teacher—child conversation.

Keep safe everyone! Mrs. Coates

*This boy Derek Drew
Keeps copying my work, Miss.
What shall I do?*

*Go and sit in the hall, dear.
Go and sit in the sink.
Take your books on the roof, my lamb.
Do whatever you think.*

*Please Mrs Butler
This boy Derek Drew
Keeps taking my rubber, Miss.
What shall I do?*

*Keep it in your hand, dear.
Hide it up your vest.
Swallow it if you like, my love.
Do what you think is best.*

*Please Mrs Butler
This boy Derek Drew
Keeps calling me rude names, miss.
What shall I do?*

*Lock yourself in the cupboard, dear.
Run away to sea.
Do whatever you can, my flower.
But don't ask me!*
