The Terrible Trouble

| Morning Morning I pulled back the bedcovers and saw an old grey koala bear was climbing the curtains. He looked at me and sneezed. I shouted for help but everyone was dancing in the kitchen listening to the radio. A kangaroo jumped onto the table while we were eating lunch. He kicked and punched when Dad was dragging him outside. Unfortunately Dad left the backdoor open and the wombat walked in and was looking for carrots. We watched TV. A grumpy echidna strolled into the lounge and rolled into a ball. Mum jumped and Dad offered to roll it into the kitchen. Soon after we heard wombat was banging around in the cupboards looking for carrots. | | |
