

KIRKHAM GRAMMAR SCHOOL

TEACHER OF ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS STUDIES

THE DEPARTMENT

The department is presently staffed by one HOD and two members of staff, with the new addition making four. The department itself is well-resourced and accommodated in dedicated rooms that have the benefit of full ICT facilities.

The AQA Business Studies specifications for both GCSE and A-level are followed and the subject remains a popular option (64 students are in Year 10, 57 in Year 11; 11 in Year 12 and 7 in Year 13).

The department has achieved very good results in recent years and is determined to maintain this high level of attainment.

The subject of Economics was successfully introduced at A-level in September 2013 and has grown in popularity since, with 14 students in Y12 and 8 students in Y13. The Edexcel A-level Economics specification is followed.

ROLE

To join the Economics and Business Studies department and to complement an effective team to facilitate the pupils' learning in these subjects. Within this broad aim the appointed teacher will play a vital role in the teaching and promotion of Economics and Business Studies within the school.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- To teach Economics at A-level and also to teach Business Studies at GCSE and A-level.
- To follow and contribute to departmental schemes of work and risk assessments.
- To maintain high standards of teaching and learning within the department to ensure pupils are able to fulfil their potential.
- To take part in the school's appraisal system and undertake professional development.
- To promote the contribution of ICT within the department and ensure its integration into schemes of work.

- To promote Economics and Business Studies throughout the school, both as curricular subjects and in extra-curricular activities.
- To work as a Form Tutor and promote high standards of behaviour, effort and attainment.
- Attendance at departmental meetings.
- To contribute fully to the wider ethos of the school by participating in extra-curricular activities.
- Undertake duties that may be reasonably assigned by the Head.

Please note, boarding accommodation may be offered to a suitable candidate.
