

Prior Learning:

This unit builds on previous learning about people who help us and significant individuals from the past. Pupils will learn about key achievements of significant individuals and their impact on society.

Key Vocabulary

Significant	Important and remembered because it made a difference.
Legacy	Something a person leaves behind that continues to help others.
Change	When something becomes different over time
History	Learning about people and events from the past..

Useful Books

Key Learning

- What makes someone a change maker?
- How did the Wright brothers change the way people travel?
- How did Ada Lovelace and Katherine Johnson use maths to change the world?
- How did Louis Braille help people communicate and learn independently?
- How did Emmeline Pankhurst and Martin Luther King Jr. fight for fairness and equality?

The Big Question

How have change makers helped to make the world a better place?

Visual Vocabulary (significant people)

	The Wright Brothers developed the first plane
 	Ada Lovelace and Katherine Johnson were mathematicians
	Louis Braille invented the reading and writing system called of raised dots called braille in 1824
 	Emmeline Pankhurst and Martin Luther King Jr. fought for fairness.

Cross Curricular Links

Aspiration & Belonging
Geography - our local environment