Dear parent/carer,

We have almost completed two full weeks back and things are going well. We have had no new confirmed cases of Covid this week - long may it continue!

A request from the music department: if you have any unused musical instruments at home that you would be willing to donate to the school, please email us at info@littleilford.org for the attention of Mr Broadbent, the Curriculum Team Leader for music.

Many of you are using the MyEd app to report absence, which is great. It is worth noting that the office staff have to cut and paste the messages from this to send to the pastoral team after they have taken all of the morning calls, so it may be that someone calls who does not know that you have already sent a message. We aim to call all parents anyway, regardless of whether an absence has been notified as this is regarded as good practice by the borough.

Other than that, all is quiet for the moment. We hope that all of you have a lovely weekend.

Yours faithfully,

Ian Wilson
Headteacher
