18th March 2021

Dear Parent/Carer

Year 11 assessments for the week beginning 22nd March 2021

Year 11 will be tested on a number of occasions from now until May. It will seem like short notice for us to tell you about these assessments for next week, but remember that the teachers feel that the students are ready to take these particular assessments now. This may be because they are related to a mock that had to be cancelled at the last minute because of the Covid outbreak in Year 11 at the end of last term, or it may be because the test is skills-based rather than knowledge based (e.g. Geography). Our senior leadership team are discussing the assessments as I write, and a full timetable will be published on the website shortly.
