Family Relationship Matters

We all have arguments; it is normal for parents to argue, whether they are together or not. Causes can include; job loss, births, deaths, illness or separation, money worries or the pressure of family life.

Our Family Relationships Matters programme consists of six sessions delivered one to one by trained facilitators from Early Help, Families First, Children's Centres and Schools. We will match families to the best organisation to deliver based on the family's needs and existing support networks.

These sessions give families the tools to manage conflict effectively and reduce the impact on their children.
