- Ariana Grande-7 rings
- Aaliyah-Rock the Boat
- Annie Lennox-I put a spell on you
- Aretha Franklin-Think
- Anne-Marie-Friends

A

My favourite song was definitely 7 rings by Ariana Grande. I thought it was really catchy and good to dance to. I also liked because it is pop and pop is my favourite type of music.

H

I think what makes a good film score is something memorable. The music needs to give the audience a certain emotion. I think it needs to be something that will make the audience listen to it and think "this music makes me feel...." so that they will never forget it.

It also needs to have tension. So if something scary happened in the movie, the music would maybe go slower and quieter, to faster and louder, giving the audience a tense feeling.

For the music alphabet challenge - letter X what do you understand to be tuned and untuned percussion?

Response to feedback:

Untuned percussion are a group of instruments which are used for rhythm in composition and can't make a specific pitch. Some instruments are:

- Bass drums,
- Side drums,
- Triangles

Tune percussion are a group of instruments which can produce a specific pitch some of these instruments are:

GEOGRAPHY: 7N2 EVE DADSWELL AND LILY DADSWELL

NOMINATED BY: MISS CARTWRIGHT

WELL DONE LILY FOR SUBMITTING THIS EXCELLENT WORK ON TORNADOES – KEEP UP THE GREAT WORK AT HOME!

TORNADOES

A tornado is a violent rotating column of air extending from a thunderstorm to the ground.

Most tornadoes are found in the Great Plains of the central United States – an ideal environment for the formation of severe thunderstorms. In this area, known as Tornado Alley, storms are caused when dry cold air moving south from Canada meets warm moist air travelling north from the Gulf of Mexico.

Tornadoes form when warm, humid air collides with cold, dry air. The denser cold air is pushed over the warm air, usually producing thunderstorms. The warm air rises through the colder air, causing an updraft. Water droplets from the mesocyclone's moist air form a funnel cloud.

Tornadoes affect the environment by destroying buildings and trees. Tornadoes also kill animals, which affects the food chain and disrupts the whole environment. Tornadoes destroy farms, which mean there will be food shortages around the surrounding area. After everything is destroyed, humans have to rebuild.

WELL DONE EVE FOR SUBMITTING THIS DETAILED WORK ON HURRICANES – WELL DONE FOR WORKING HARD AT HOME!

Hurricanes

What is a hurricane?

A hurricane is a storm with a violent wind, in particular a tropical cyclone which forms over tropical or subtropical waters e.g. in the Caribbean.

Where does a hurricane occur?

Tropical storms occur in several countries including: China, Philippines, Japan, Mexico, United States, Australia, Taiwan, Vietnam, Madagascar and Cuba. These are the ten most hit countries.

Why does a hurricane happen?

Hurricanes form over the warm ocean water of the tropics. When warm moist air over the water rises, it is replaced by cooler air. The cooler air

FOOD STUDIES: 7N2 LILY DADSWELL

NOMINATED BY: MRS SHORT

HERE IS LILY'S DETAILED OUTLINE OF HER CHOCOLATE
MUG CAKE.

WELL DONE LILY, THIS IS GREAT TO SEE!

Year 7 Practical Task

Name: Lily Dadswell      Group: 7LHO

My picture:

Evaluation of my cake in a mug.
(Include others opinions and your own on its taste, texture and appearance)

On the top of my cake I melted a bit of snickers to add a creamy crunch with a bit of salt. I used more vanilla than chocolate powder because I wanted it to taste like vanilla but a bit like chocolate. I liked my cake a lot but I thought it was a little bit undercooked at the bottom. My mum thought the cake wasn't very nice she said it tasted chewy and doughy and so did my dad.

List the ingredients you have used to make your cake in a mug:

Ingredient	What was its function? How has it changed the colour, taste and texture of the cake
3 tbsp veg oil	I used vegetable oil because you need veg oil to coat the flour so the liquids don't combine so your cake will be light and fluffy not chewy.
3 tbsp sugar	I used sugar to sweeten the cake because if the cake wasn't sweet it would taste like bread when you want a sweet cake. Sugar also gives it a nice taste.
1 egg	I used an egg to keep a structure and stability within the batter. They also help thicken the batter so it isn't super runny and liquidy.
3tbsp plain flour	I used plain flour because it adds dryness to the mixture and helps the cake be mixed. It also adds structure.
Pinch baking powder	Baking powder is like yeast and it helps the mixture expand and rise. It helps the mixture lighten when baking and allows air to get in.
Crushed oreo 1	It adds flavour to the mixture and adds a crunch to your mouth. The cream in the middle adds a creamy texture.
Vanilla extract and coco powder	I used a tsp of vanilla extract and 1/2 tsp of cocoa powder.

RELIGIOUS STUDIES: 7S1 SOPHIA DONNISON, IBRAHIM SALAH AND 7N1 CARA WARD

10A RS: MORGAN MARTIN AND ELEANOR WILSON

NOMINATED BY: MRS ADAIR-MCAULEY

SOPHIA, IBRAHIM AND CARA HAVE BEEN NOMINATED FOR THEIR LOVELY WORK AND THOUGHTFUL EXPLANATIONS.

ELEANOR HAS DONE A LOT OF WORK TO CATCH UP THIS WEEK HAVING NOT HAD ACCESS TO THE TASKS AND HAS ALSO CREATED THIS EXCELLENT RS BOARD GAME. MORGAN HAS PUT A LOT OF THOUGHT INTO HER WORK THIS WEEK. WELL DONE TO YOU ALL!

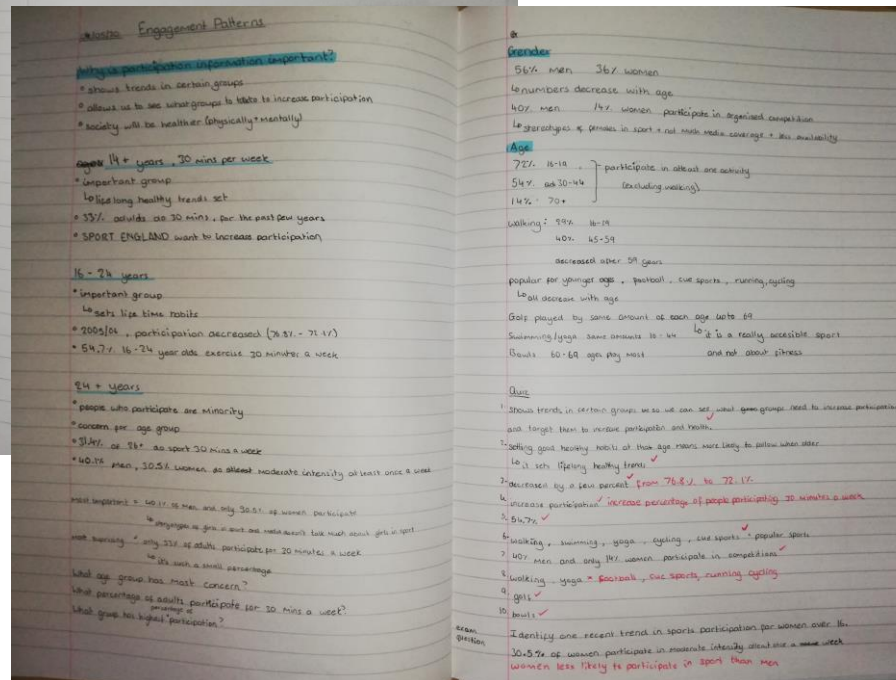

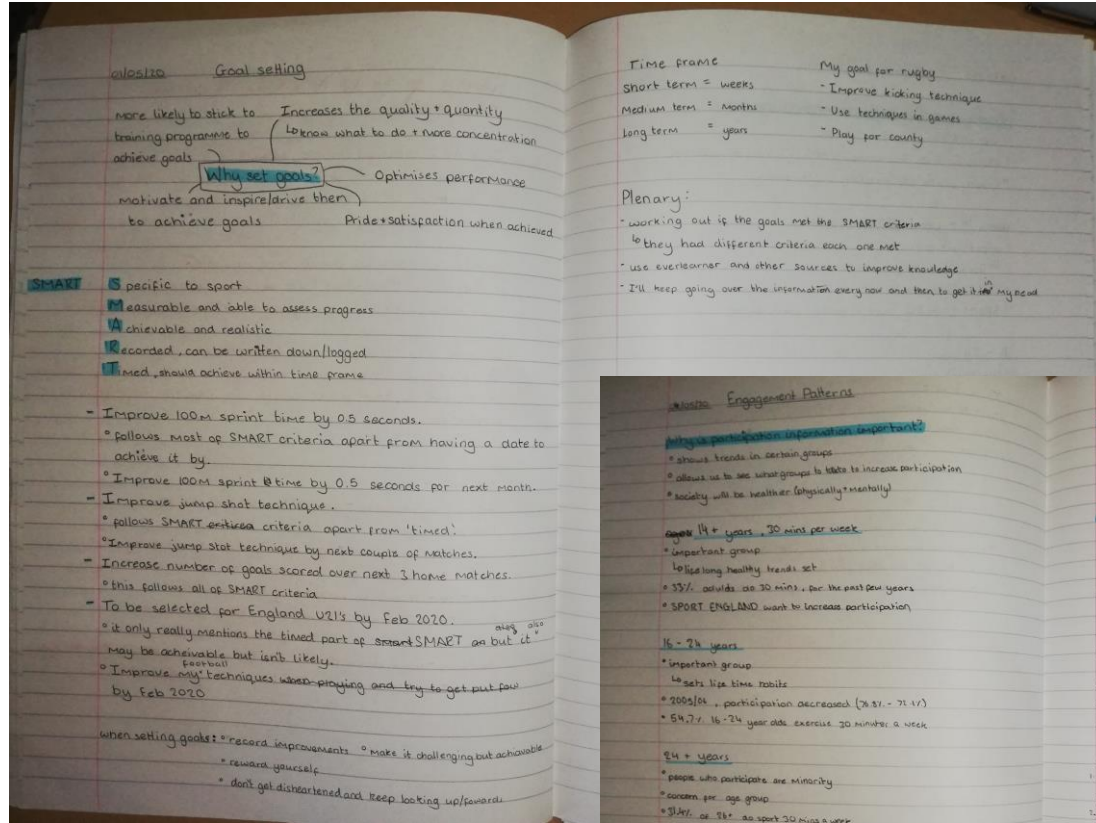

Meditation is a spiritual exercise that helps to calm the mind and the body. There are different forms of meditation, Theravada Buddhists often use samatha meditation for a calm and happy mindset and emotion. They may focus on using a variety of objects or emotions when they meditate. They may use a candle flame to help the breathing of compassion. In Tibetan Buddhism, they are given part of the Buddhist scriptures to learn by heart. They can go through the two main stages of Buddhism. One is the analytical stage where they have to think carefully about the details of the teaching given in the text, there is also a more concentrated stage where they aim to fully understand the teaching. There is also another common type of meditation called loving-kindness meditation, the aim of this is to develop a sense of compassion and love towards oneself and others, this helps to create a sense of positivity and calmness.

Buddhism meditation may differ from a normal type of meditation because it is mainly about calming the mind and staying focused and happy, whereas the normal type of meditation doesn't mean much and Buddhism has more meaning. Can you explain what you mean by 'normal' type of meditation – and what this involves?

My opinion of Buddhism meditation is good because they are thinking about the mind and emotions. There are other types of Buddhist meditation so you can pick which one is your favourite. Can you name another type?
