

YEAR 8

Independent learning to be completed during school closure please submit this work in whichever way is easiest for you e.g. email a Word or PowerPoint document or photo of your work; write your answer up in the body of an email; file your work to be handed in at a later date

PSHE: During a two week period you would ordinarily have: 2 lessons

Week Beginning: 22 June 2020

Complete / present the activities in any way you like. The title for today's lesson is The Global Environment.

- What is the global environment?
- Use this link to help you to answer the questions below (if the link does not work, search Newsround + global environment and use the Newsround links): <https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/52357230>
  - What is Earth Day?
  - What is climate change?
  - What is climate change activism and what is your opinion on it?
  - How has coronavirus affected the global environment?
- What do you think is the most serious issue the global environment faces? For example, is it animal extinction, climate change, deforestation, or something else? Add information to your presentation about what you think is the biggest concern for the global environment.

Week Beginning: 29 June 2020

Complete / present the activities in any way you like. The title for today's lesson is Reduce, Reuse Recycle.

- What do the phrases reduce, reuse and recycle mean?
- Watch the video clips at the links below. If the links do not work, search 'how does recycling work' and 'Newsround – recycling'.
- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=b7GMpJx2jDQ>
- <https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/47276118>
- Make a poster or leaflet either to inform people about what recycling is or to encourage people to reduce, reuse and recycle.
- Search 'North Tyneside Council – rubbish and recycling' and add information to your presentation about local recycling.
- For a challenge: write an evaluation of this statement and conclude with your own opinion: 'We will never get everyone in the world to reduce their waste, so it's pointless trying to do so.'
