

YEAR 7

Independent learning to be completed during school closure

History – Henry's Palaces and an introduction to Tudor life?

During a two week period you would ordinarily have:

3 History lessons. This is for the fortnight 18/05/20 – 29/05/20

Lesson 1 – History in the world of Work – Archaeology

History is a brilliant subject to study, not only because it is fascinating but also because there are so many jobs which you can do as a result of studying History. Your first task is to investigate one of these jobs.

Archaeology is an important branch of Historical study. You are going to complete some research into this job. You are going to create a job fact-file. This could be a mind-map, leaflet etc. The more creative the better. You could include

- What is an archaeologist?
- What would the day to day tasks of an archaeologist be?
- What qualifications would you need?
- What skills do you need to do this job?
- How might school work help you in this career?
- Challenge – Can you find out about a university course in the UK which trains archaeologists?

Lesson 2 - Henry's lost palaces.

You have recently been studying Henry VIII. He loved to show how powerful he was and a way in which he did this was by building lots of palaces.

You are now going to combine this knowledge of Henry and the world of archaeology. Below is a link to a documentary – Time Team – Henry's lost palaces.

You are going to watch this documentary whilst make notes. These challenge questions should also be answered.

Challenge

Why was it so difficult to find Henry's lost palaces?

Why are palaces so important to Henry?

How does the archaeology help you in school learn about History?

How did Hampton Court palace change?

Can you tell me about Tudor bowling alleys?

Lesson 3 – What was it like to live in Tudor England?

How different is life now compared to the world of the Tudors. You are going to use the websites linked and others which you can find, to create a mind-map about life in the Tudor times. If you wish, you could draw images to show the different aspects of Tudor life (if you are feeling a little more creative).
