Quick Facts

The Bible is written in two main parts: The old Testament and the New Testament.

The Old testament (The Tanakh) tells stories of the Jewish people before Jesus was born.

The New Testament tells stories about Jesus, who was a Jew. It also tells stories about Jesus after he died. The Easter story tells the Christian story of how Jesus died on the cross, then was raised from the dead.

The Melligat Esther tells the important Jewish story of how Queen Esther saved her people by stopping Haman's plot to kill the Jews.
