

College and University

Journalist

Teacher, Lecturer, Professor

Solicitor, Civil Service, Ministry of Defence
Museum curator, Archaeologist

Term 3

- Preparation for GCSE, as we look back over the Year 9-11 content and skills.

Term 2

Completion of the Elizabethan element of the GCSE.

Elizabethan assessment

Term 1

- Modern approaches to medicine.
- Introduction to the Elizabethan element of the GCSE.
- Preparations of the Trial examinations.

Mid and End of unit exams. Trial exam

YEAR 11

Term 3

- Hitler's domestic policies.
- Introduction to the Britain: health and the People section.

End of Germany section assessment.

End of unit exam.

Term 3

- Hitler's Foreign Policy.
- Introduction into German: Democracy and Dictatorship

YEAR 10

Term 1

- End of the Kaiser's Germany.
- Introduction to the Weimar Republic

Germany based GCSE style questioning

Term 2

- Weimar Golden Age.
- Policies of Gustav Stresemann.
- Rise of the Nazi Party

Interpretation style examination question based on the Nazis.

Term 2 –

- A continuation of the Conflict and Tension element of the AQA GCSE specification

GCSE style questions

Term 1

- What was the Holocaust?
- An introduction to the History GCSE. Conflict and Tension; 1918-1939.

Historical enquiry assessment

YEAR 9

Term 3

- What was life like on the Western Front?
- What were the causes and effects of World War Two?

Causation assessment

Interpretation assessment

Term 3

- Was Elizabeth I a great Queen?
- What was the Civil Rights Movement?

YEAR 8

Term 1

- What was the Industrial Revolution?
- What were the Social implications of the Industrial Revolution?

Causation assessment

Term 2

- Why did Titanic sink?
- What were the causes of the First World War?

Historical enquiry assessment.

Term 2

- How did the Normans establish control over England?
- Church Vs State: Who wins?

Causation assessment

Term 1

- What is History?
- What were the causes and consequences of the different invasions involving Britain?

Baseline assessment

YEAR 7

Each unit of work has a formative and summative assessment included within it.