	observation and data collection to establish if there may be underlying SEND
How do we make sure	Access to a broad, balanced curriculum which is well differentiated all children reach their	and takes account of different learning styles and children's interests potential?	Teaching assistants used within departments where pupils need to be supported
	 Quality of teaching and learning well monitored Individualised targets and flight paths for all children Rigorous pupil tracking system, which ensures all children are monitored Professional dialogue about every child in school in pastoral team, departmental and line management meetings ensures any difficulties are identified early and suitable provision put in place Detailed programme of reviews with parents and professionals: Parents' consultation evenings with all parents; termly reviews for all children on the SEND register and comprehensive annual reviews for pupils with an Education, Health and Care Plan (EHCP). Parents' views are very important to us Children's views are very important: consultation with pupils to help to formulate support plans Behaviour is outstanding, with a clear behaviour policy embedded A zero-tolerance policy for bullying, with a clear anti bullying policy Long established, acknowledged and celebrated ethos of inclusion, equality and care
What kind of SEND do	Madeley caters for children with SEND across all of the four we provide for?	categories
'	 Where necessary, we seek advice from external agencies to ensure that we are able to meet the needs of all SEND pupils
