

Unit Overview	In this unit children start to become familiar with the idea that some books are holy books. They look at stories in the bokes form different religions and consider what their meanings are.
Unit Title:	Substantive Knowledge	Disciplinary Knowledge
Key Questions: What are your favourite stories and why? What do some stories tell us about people?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Children will know some religious stories and be able to talk about their favourite stories. • Children can retell stories or parts of stories from the bible. • Children know that some stories mean something to people: David and Goliath - how to be brave, trusting God. • To know the Qur'an is a special book for Muslims and it has stories like the bible does. 	Believing Expressing Living
Vocabulary	Trips/ Visits/Useful Websites/ Resources	Key Misconceptions:
Substantive: Stories Special Christians Bible Muslims Qur'an Disciplinary: Belief		