

Manor Park Job Centre

Job Title: Library Monitor (Caravans and Bus)

Job Description:

-You will be in charge of making sure that the library areas look fantastic!

-You will be required to spend one lunch time per week making sure that the books are tidy and that books are sorted into their appropriate genres.

-Also, any rubbish or mess will need to be cleared from these areas.

-Training will be given to show you how to correctly organise the books on the shelves, so when books need to be returned, you will be able to sort them out.

Who are we looking for?

We are looking for children with a passion for reading who feel strongly about keeping our library looking great. You will need to have a good understanding of different genres so that you can sort the books appropriately. Although it would be beneficial to be a confident reader, you will be working in a team, so others will be there to help. We will need children who will take this responsibility seriously and commit to this job every week.
