

What do Hindus believe?

Outcomes

- Know that Hindus believe Brahman is the one true God
- Know that Hindus worship different parts of God (deities)
- Recognise some of the principal gods and goddesses in Hinduism (Brahma, Vishnu, Shiva, Krishna, Rama, Lakshmi, Saraswati, Ganesha)
- Recognise the Aum symbol as a 'badge' for Hindus
- Know that dance and music are important to Hindus
- Know that the Hindu year involves many festivals such as Diwali and Holi
- Know about the festivals of Diwali (light) and Holi (colour)

Hindu	A follower of Hinduism
Brahman	The one true God, the
Deity	A god or goddess who represents part of God
Aum	Symbol
Murti	Models used in worship to
Mandir	Hindu temple
Diwali	Festival of light
Holi	Spring festival celebrating the triumph of good over evil

Hindus believe Brahman is the one true God who is found in everything

Hindus worship many deities—gods or goddesses which show aspects of God

The Aum symbol is like a badge for Hindus

Hindus worship in a Mandir and at home.