

Mayfield School Privacy Notice for Governors, and Volunteers (How we use governance and volunteer information)

Mayfield School is the data controller under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) for the use of personal data explained in this Privacy Notice.

Personal data is any information that can be used to identify a living person, either on its own, or in combination with other data. Processing includes collection, use, and storage.

The categories of governance and volunteer information that we process include:

- Personal identifiers like name, image, date of birth, contact details including email and postal address, driving licence or passport numbers and similar information that identifies you;
- Financial, employment or business information like a governor's or trustee's outside work, financial or business interests, or bank details for expense payments;
- Relevant qualifications like first aid;
- Special categories of data like criminal conviction or social care action information for legal and safeguarding reasons, next of kin and medical information (to prevent or manage a health or medical issue), and protected characteristics like ethnicity, sex, gender reassignment or religion.
- Governance or volunteering details like their role, start and end dates, Governor ID (GID).

Why we collect and use this information

The personal data we collect is essential to fulfil our official functions and meet legal requirements.

We are a maintained school and have a legal duty under section 538 of the Education Act 1996 to provide governance information to the Get Information About Schools (GIAS) scheme online.

We also use governor, trustee and volunteer data to:

- a) comply with the law, and keep governors, trustees and other volunteers safe;
- b) recruit and monitor appropriately and obtain a GID for governors or trustees;
- c) enable individuals to be paid expenses or access services; and
- d) celebrate or promote school, for scientific interest, or to record our own school history.

Under UK GDPR, the lawful bases we rely on for processing personal governance and volunteering information are:

- To enter into or carry out a contract (mainly reasons b), and c) above) e.g., to appoint governors, trustees and volunteers and include them in services we buy like access to online subscriptions we hold, or to engage with our training or activity providers.
- To protect vital interests (mainly reason a) above) e.g., allergy or other health information
- to comply with the law (mainly reason a) above) e.g., publishing information on our website and submitting data to GIAS.
- Having consent (mainly reasons c), and d) above) e.g., to use images and names in publicity.

When we process special category data like medical information, biometrics, or criminal history, we need to have one lawful basis from the list above and one of the following list:

- having consent (mainly reasons a), and e) above) e.g., for referral to occupational health or other support services or to use a biometric controlled catering service.
- to comply with the law (mainly reasons a), and b) above) e.g., pre-appointment criminal record checks, reasonable adjustments to volunteer tasks and governor or trustee tasks or election procedures.
- to improve public health (mainly reason a) above) e.g., report notifiable diseases to local or national government departments;
- to make or defend a legal claim e.g., some special educational needs and other records which detail governors or trustees that dealt with complaints or appeals about them, all accident records etc.

Marketing Purposes

If we are processing your personal data to communicate electronically e.g., by app, text message or email, because you work for or with us, this is called a soft opt-in to being kept informed. You can opt out at any time using the link we send with every communication.

Automated decision making & profiling

We do not currently process any personal data through automated decision making or profiling. If this changes in the future, we will update our privacy notices to explain what we are doing and your right to object.

Collecting governance and volunteer information

We collect personal information via, governor applications, volunteer risk assessment, contact, or service provider registration forms.

Most of the information we ask for is required by law or necessary so we can run the school effectively, and some of it is voluntary. To comply with UK GDPR, if you have a choice about providing information, we will tell you when we ask for it. We will also tell you what to do if you do not want to share this information with us.

Storing governance and volunteer information

We hold governor and volunteer data securely in line with the Information and Records Management Society (IRMS) Records Management Toolkit for Schools.

Most data about governors is kept for between 6 months and 6 years after an election or term of office ends, although some is kept for much longer e.g., minutes of governor meetings showing attendees are kept for the lifetime of a school.

Most data about volunteers is kept for between 6 months and 6 years after they stop volunteering for us.

Who we share governance and volunteer information with and why

We do not share information about individuals in governance roles with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so. The laws listed in this notice that require us to collect information also require us to share it. Data is transferred securely by hand delivery or registered post, via a government data transfer system like GIAS, and sometimes in other secure ways.

We routinely share governor and volunteer information with:

- our financial services provider to pay expenses;
- Government departments like UK Health Security Agency, Disclosure and Barring Service and local authority public health to comply with the law and support public health action;
- other organisations like an off-site training or activity provider that needs next of kin or medical details to manage people safely, and third-party service providers like online subscriptions or DBS Umbrella bodies (for the processing of the DBS Certificates), but usually only with consent.

We routinely share only governor or trustee information with:

- our local authority (as above),

Sharing governance information with the Department for Education

The Department for Education (DfE) collects personal data from educational settings and local authorities via various statutory data collections.

We are required to share information about our governors/management committee members with the Department for Education (DfE) under section 538 of the Education Act 1996.

All data is entered manually on the GIAS system and held by DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls which meet the current government security policy framework.

For more information, please see 'How Government uses your data' section.

Requesting access to your personal data

UK GDPR, gives you certain rights about how your information is collected and used. To make a request for your personal information, contact admin@mayfield.cumbria.sch.uk

Your rights include:

- the right to be informed about the collection and use of your personal data – this is called the 'right to be informed'.
- the right to ask us for copies of personal information we have about you – this is called the 'right of access' and is also known as a subject access request (SAR), data subject access request or right of access request.
- the right to ask us to change any information you think is not accurate or complete – this is called the 'right to rectification'.
- the right to ask us to delete your personal information – this is called the 'right to erasure'.
- the right to ask us to stop using your information – this is called the 'right to restriction of processing'.
- the right to object to our processing of your information, in certain circumstances.
- rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling.
- the right to withdraw consent at any time (where relevant).
- the right to complain to the Information Commissioner if you feel we have not used your information in the right way.

There are legitimate reasons why your information rights request may be refused. For example, some rights will not apply:

- right to erasure does not apply when the lawful basis for processing is legal obligation or public task.
- right to portability does not apply when the lawful basis for processing is legal obligation, vital interests, public task or legitimate interests.
- right to object does not apply when the lawful basis for processing is contract, legal obligation or vital interests. And if the lawful basis is consent, you don't have the right to object, but you have the right to withdraw consent.

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, you should raise your concern with us in the first instance or directly to the Information Commissioner at raise a concern with ICO.

For more information on how to request access to personal information held centrally by the DfE, please see the 'How Government uses your data' section of this notice below.

Withdrawal of consent and the right to lodge a complaint

If we are only processing your personal data because you consented, you have the right to withdraw that consent. If you change your mind, or you want to make a complaint about our use of your personal data, please let us know by contacting admin@mayfield.cumbria.sch.uk

We must acknowledge complaints within 30 days, take appropriate steps to investigate and address them, and inform you of the outcome.

How Government uses governance data about you

The governance data that we lawfully share with the DfE via GIAS will:

- increase the transparency of governance arrangements;
- enable maintained schools and academy trusts and the department to identify more quickly and accurately individuals who are involved in governance and who govern in more than one context;
- allow the DfE to be able to uniquely identify an individual and in a small number of cases conduct checks to confirm their suitability for this important and influential role.

Data collection requirements

To find out more about the requirements placed on us by the DfE including the data that we share with them, go to <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/get-information-about-schools>

Note: Some of these personal data items are not publicly available and are encrypted within the GIAS system. Access is restricted to a small number of DfE staff who need to see it in order to fulfil their official duties. The information is for internal purposes only and not shared beyond the department unless the law allows it.

How to find out what personal information DfE hold about you

Under the terms of the UK Data Protection Act 2018, you're entitled to ask the Department:

- if they are processing your personal data;
- for a description of the data they hold about you;
- the reasons they're holding it and any recipient it may be disclosed to;
- for a copy of your personal data and any details of its source.

If you want to see the personal data held about you by the DfE, you should make a 'subject access request'. Further information on how to do this can be found in the DfE's personal information charter published at: <https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/department-for-education/about/personal-information-charter> or <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/requesting-your-personal-information/requesting-your-personal-information#your-rights>
