

Today we brought stories to life in our World Book Day hunt! Each class had the chance to explore interactive story displays and activities following a map.

Some of our older pupils became model readers, reading their favourite stories to their peers.

There was also lots of reading activities going on throughout school, promoting our love of reading.

